

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Jason S. Weisstein, MD, MPH, FACS
Orthopedic Surgery

Education

Fellowship, Adult and Pediatric Orthopedic Oncology and Complex Joint Reconstruction, 2004, University of Washington College of Medicine, Seattle, Washington

Residency, Orthopedic Surgery, 2003, University of California at San Francisco, San Francisco, California

Internship, General Surgery, 1999, University of California at San Francisco, San Francisco, California

Medical Doctorate, 1998, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, New York, New York

Master of Public Health in Epidemiology and Environmental Science, 1994, Columbia University School of Public Health, New York, New York

Bachelor of Arts, Biology and Spanish, 1991, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Certifications

American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery

Licenses

California, Florida and Colorado
State of Arizona Medical License

Professional Affiliations

Fellow, American College of Surgeons

Fellow, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons

Fellow, American Association of Hip and Knee Surgeons

Musculoskeletal Tumor Society, International Speaker Education Committee Member for Musculoskeletal Tumor Society

Alpha Omega Alpha

Sarcoma Foundation of America, Chapter Leader, State of Arizona, 2004–2006

Leroy C. Abbott Society, San Francisco, CA

Academic Appointments

Assistant Professor, 2006–2009, University of Washington School of Medicine, Department of Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine, Seattle, Washington

Children's Hospital and Regional Medical Center of Seattle, Division of Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine, Seattle, Washington

Joint Reconstruction Service: Primary and revision hip and knee reconstruction utilizing the latest techniques. Specialty trained in hip resurfacing, quadriceps sparing, minimally invasive total knee arthroplasty, and minimally invasive total hip arthroplasty.

Musculoskeletal Oncology (Sarcoma) Service: Resection and reconstruction surgery for benign and malignant bone tumors, treatment of metastatic disease, avascular necrosis, and orthopaedic conditions affecting cancer patients.

Clinical Affiliate Assistant Professor of Surgery, 2015–2018, Florida Atlantic University Charles E. Schmidt College of Medicine, Boca Raton, Florida

Acting Instructor, 2003–2004, University of Washington School of Medicine, Department of Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine, and Children's Hospital and Regional Medical Center of Seattle, Division of Orthopaedic and Sports Medicine, Seattle, Washington

Honors

Castle Connolly Top Doctors Award for Orthopaedic Surgery, 2015–2018, West Palm Beach, Florida

University of Washington Medical Center Medical Staff Teamwork Leadership Caring Award, July 2009, Seattle, Washington

Young Investigator Award, Society for Inherited Metabolic Diseases, Asilomar, California, March 2002

Resident Award Paper, Western Orthopaedic Association, Annual Scientific Conference, Monterey, California, May 2002

Class Valedictorian, 1998, James Felt Memorial Prize for highest overall academic performance, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, New York, New York

Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, admitted 1998, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, New York, New York

Graduated with Honors Distinction in research, 1998, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, New York, New York

Williams and Wilkins Book Award for outstanding second year medical student, 1995, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, New York, New York

Academic Excellence Award for highest overall academic achievement and promise in the field of public health, 1994, Columbia University School of Public Health, New York, New York

Cum Laude, 1991; Honors Distinction in research, 1991; Biology departmental honors, 1991, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Second Language

Spanish